High School Senior Scholarship APPLICATION GUIDELINES

REQUIREMENTS:

Students must be an enrolled member of the Seneca-Cayuga Tribe of Oklahoma and currently in an accredited high school. Student must be graduating and submit a letter from the school with date of graduation and signed by a school representative. A complete application must be filed with the Claims Committee for each student for whom funds are being sought. Each qualified student for whom a completed application is filed will receive $500.00 paid by check to the student who has signed the application. Please print or type the name the check will be issued to. The check will be mailed to the student's mailing address provided on the application.

RECEIPTS:

After receiving the scholarship and purchasing the graduation items, receipts must be submitted to the Claims Committee, 23701 South 655 Road, Grove, Oklahoma 74344

FILING AN APPLICATION:

A complete Graduating Student Fund Application must be filed in a timely manner for each qualified student for whom funds are requested. A completed application will be reviewed and processed in a timely manner as they are received. Please print or type the name of student to whom the check will be written. Applications will not be considered complete unless the following is submitted:

1. Application form completed and signed.
2. Copy of Graduate Tribal enrollment card.
3. Letter from school with the graduation date stated on school letterhead.

Seniors must apply prior to graduation to be eligible for assistance

USE OF GRADUATING STUDENT FUNDS:

Student Graduation funds will be paid by check to the eligible student who signed the application and mailed to the students address provided on the application. This funding has been established to help provide Tribal students with assistance in purchasing graduation items for school. Each student deemed eligible will receive $500.00 for graduation expenses. The use of these funds for any purpose other than described is prohibited.
